Educational resources on International Holocaust Remembrance Day

The resources below contain information that may be disturbing to some individuals. If you or someone you know is triggered by the content in this guide, please refer to this page for support resources – Canadian Guide to Programs and Services for Holocaust Survivors.

The UN General Assembly designated January 27th, the anniversary of the liberation of Auschwitz-Birkenau, as International Holocaust Remembrance Day. This day of remembrance was established to honor the six million Jews and millions of other victims of the Holocaust and Nazism. The United Nations calls on individuals to hold memorial services and undertake educational initiatives to learn more and help prevent such tragedies from occurring in the future.
