BLOOM! Gala tickets now on sale

We are less than 30 days away from Bloom! 2017, an evening to celebrate all those who are committed to diversity and inclusion, and who help make Canada one of the most inclusive countries in the world. We're pleased to announce that Suhana Meharchand, CBC News Network national host, will once again be this year's MC. It promises to be a fabulous night.

Bloom! is an opportunity to celebrate and recognize the efforts of diversity and inclusion professionals and champions. We will honour a few of them at our big night with the presentation of the 2017 Awards of Success.

Purchase your tickets today.

eLearning

eLearning – effective and accessible experience

eLearning or online learning is a powerful option in your learning and development toolkit.

At CCDI, we leverage best practices in learning and design to deliver powerful training beyond the limitations of the live classroom. Regardless of a person's ability, our eLearning courses are fully accessible. This evolution in learning technology is driven by an evolution in the learner. Mayagwe provides employment opportunities for interpreters Mayagwe gives organizations access to a database of professional language interpreters in the Calgary region. The new database has a growing list of interpreters providing service in multiple languages. "We see this as a unique opportunity to provide clients with quality language services and provide employment opportunities to experienced interpreters," says Bill Dodd, Director, Mayagwe.

If you are a qualified interpreter, visit our website to register.

Industry leaders join CCDI in opening Calgary office

On Thursday, March 23, CCDI's Calgary team hosted a reception in the new downtown space to celebrate their expansion into Western Canada. Business leaders, academics, immigrants, artists, cultural influencers and city officials spent an enjoyable evening with the CCDI team.
