CCDI | Community of practice
Inclusive leadership
In 18 cities, from
St. John's to Victoria
Spring 2019

What does it mean to be an inclusive leader? What should a leader be doing to ensure they are getting the most out of the people around them?

Based on current research and established frameworks in inclusive leadership, this Community of Practice event will explore the competencies of inclusive leaders and provide participants with strategies to build inclusion within their team and organizations. Leaders are all around us and exist in all levels of an organization – join us to learn how you can develop your inclusive leadership skills.

What's in a name?

Visible Minority. Racialized Person. Person of

Colour. Which one are we supposed to use? I get asked that question a lot. Truthfully, for every person you ask, you'll get a different response. And I'm genuinely not sure which one is right.
