Canada Day: Resources for learning and engaging with Indigenous communities

As National Indigenous History Month comes to an end, and amid ongoing efforts toward reconciliation, many people are asking the question: How can I or my organization celebrate Canada Day while respecting the communities that have been harmed throughout Canadian history? July 1st offers an opportunity to acknowledge, educate, remember, and take action. We have compiled a broad range of resources to inspire you to consider your own role in reconciliation this Canada Day. If you are interested in learning more, you can review our educational guides on Indigenous inclusion (PDF) and Indigenous History Month.
